RECTOR'S REFLECTIONS

THE REV. DR. MATTHEW CALKINS

Summer 2018

As I write, a warm, gentle rain is falling—much needed after a week of hot, sunny weather. The golf/dinner benefit is over, the missionaries have returned from Puerto Rico, the fireman's parade and carnival have closed up. It's quiet in the close. Beloved friends, it's summertime.

The pace of things at Grace slows down in summer. Attendance at the 10 o'clock drops, though the stalwarts of 8 rock steady. Programs are in planning mode, though, and much is happening behind the scenes.

The big push is getting ready for Grace Year. In mid-August five young adults will arrive from various parts of the country, and indeed world, and move into the Vicarage, the house next to the Rectory. They will work 3/4 time at various "praxis positions" in our area: Cary Institute of Ecosystem Studies, Cardinal Hayes Home, St Peter's Lithgow, and Grace Church—one position working with Evelyn and Abby in the GLO and EPIC programs, another working with our various programs for children and youth, such as the Community Preschool, our Sunday School and youth group. The young people are graduates of colleges and universities around the country—two locally from Vassar. Their backgrounds are quite various; one is from Russia, another Afghanistan! Together they will make quite an addition to our community. Stay tuned for more.

As I write elsewhere, we are hoping to build on the success of our youth mission trip and keep up the momentum of Connect, our mid-Hudson Episcopal youth group. We are planning our Sunday School curriculum and the Community Preschool is working on signage and website to increase their community visibility. On the other side of the age spectrum, we are involved with starting up a senior group, Millbrook at Home, and working on the planning for the Thorne Building. Our own Memorial Garden is being renovated—see the article elsewhere on that—while we have completed the work on replacing the roofs of church, parish hall and garage. So, work is getting done.

But there is also time in the summer for rest, reflection, travel, and projects around the house. Friends to visit and to host. Celebrations to attend, occasions to remember. The seasons of life and the seasons of nature each have their rhythm, and, ideally, harmony.

So, it is with seasons of Spirit. There are times of summer growth, as there are times of sowing and harvest. There are times when nothing seems to be happening—when God's voice is still or distant. But perhaps under the surface, in the deep ground of being and heart, the Spirit is stirring.

Enjoy the summer sabbath. Rest, reflect, prepare. And don't neglect to taste the fruits of the Spirit: joy, peace, love.

See you on Sunday (after I get back from vacation!), your friend in Christ, Fr. Matt

Put this on your calendar: Grace Church Program Year Kick-off: September 9

On Sunday September 9th, during the 10 o'clock service, there will be a commissioning of:

- Sunday School and Youth Group teachers
- Choir members
- Grace Year fellows
- Preschool teachers and EPIC leaders/volunteers

Following the service there will be a picnic and barbecue in the parking lot (weather permitting). The men's group will be barbecuing, along with potluck other dishes. Everyone is invited. There will be fun and games in the playground for kids

Registration forms and information available. Posters and other items from Community Day will be on display

If you would like to help out, contact the office, Fr Matt or members of the Vestry

Youth Mission Trip Report Travelers for Transformation/Viajeros para Transformacion

June 30—July 8, 2018
Vieques, Puerto Rico

Ten teenagers and five adults calling themselves “Travelers for Transformation/Viajeros para Transformacion” spent the first week of July working on a community farm, attending Bible study, and touring the historical sites and natural wonders (bioluminescent bay and beautiful beaches) of Vieques, Puerto Rico. The greatest transformation occurred when strangers became friends. The young people, drawn from St Paul’s Poughkeepsie, Grace Millbrook and the EPIC regional youth leadership program became closely bonded as a group—and promise to be the future core of our Mid-Hudson Episcopal youth program called Connect. And all of us, young and old, New Yorker or Puerto Rican, black, white, Latinx, became part of one community of faith and friendship celebrating God’s presence and healing work in a place recovering still from the devastation of hurricane Maria.

Our hosts at All Saints/Todos los Santos Episcopal Church, led by Padre Jose Diaz, an old friend and colleague of mine from Connecticut, went all out in welcoming us. For instance, we were greeted by a group of folks from the parish singing us awake at 6:30 on Monday morning—a gift it took a while for the teenagers to appreciate. We had traveled the Saturday/Sunday night before, landing in San Juan at 1am, taking a bus from the airport to a 4:30 ferry from Fajardo to the small island of Vieques. But after a Sunday siesta, the rest of the week was filled with activities, often centered in the beautifully decorated church right on the bay in Isabel II, one of two small towns on the island. Over the week we worked together with a local youth community service team at a community farm clearing debris, digging postholes for new barbed wire fencing (to keep out the famous wild horses of Vieques), and painting the entrance gate. A team of adults from the parish led us in daily reflection on themes from the Bible and our relation to God and each other. Others arranged for food, handled transportation and led guided tours. We all enjoyed late afternoons on the glorious beaches. One night we kayaked on the bioluminescent bay and were given a stargazing lesson. On Friday we participated in a communion service and visit to a senior day care center. There we were told how many seniors had died or been left severely at risk in the aftermath of the hurricane and the extended loss of food, power, and medical services. On our last day we traveled back to the main island and had time for a brief tour of old San Juan. We all returned home safely, although one young member needed a visit during the week to the sole emergency clinic on the island, very sparsely supplied—which revealed how much more recovery in basic services is needed. Certainly, there is much left to do.

It was a great trip. We helped a little and learned a lot. We had fun and came home tired, happy and healthy. But the best part of traveling for transformation was making friends; that’s the gift of grace.

Stay tuned for more on Connect, our regional Episcopal youth group, in the months to come. We are having a barbecue get-together at the Laceys on July 26 and then will be joining with the newly arrived Grace Year fellows for a canopy ropes course at Catamount mountain in late August. Contact me if you would like to learn more, help out, or join the group!

Memorial Gardens

Fr. Matt, the Vestry and the Buildings and Grounds committee are working on an expansion and improvement of the Memorial Garden outside the church. This is a work in progress but we wanted to provide an update. A plan for the garden is posted on a bulletin board in the Parish Hall.

The fence has been removed and lilacs have been planted along Franklin Ave. We anticipate using money from Tribute Gardens to create a low stone wall enclosing a “sacred space” near the church wall, where eventually we also hope to install a fountain and cross.

We also hope to add a labyrinth, benches and more plantings. These additions will await availability of funds from gifts or other sources. The intent is to create a quiet, beautiful space which will be open to the public and which will also provide a space for worship and interment services.

Grace Church Parishioners are true believers and supporters of vital programs and they showed it on July 9, 2018.

Thank you all so very much for your support and participation in the 12th Annual Golf & Dinner Benefit. Whether you played golf, attended the dinner, gave a donation, or lent a helping hand, you are stars 🌟

Because of your generosity and support we reached our goal and raised $25,000 for Grace Church.

Our honorees this year included The Rev. Elliott Lindsley and the Millbrook Garden Club. At the dinner Lea Cornell, President of the garden club, gave an engaging presentation about the club’s history and the connection to Grace Church (printed in this edition of Grace Notes).

Senator Sue Serino made a surprise appearance and congratulated the Millbrook Garden Club on their achievements with an official Proclamation. When Elliott returns from Scotland we will present him with a similar NYS Proclamation, for his lifetime of dedication to the church and community. In addition we show him the video made in his honor.

At the Gala we hosted golf for 58 people and dinner for 106. Our silent auction was a smashing success. All in all, everyone had a good time, laughed with friends, and some danced to the lively music of Peter and Judith Muir.

The Kinsey Cup tradition continued, and Rob Kinsey was there to remind us of our beloved Doug and Connie Kinsey.

Each and every one of you made a difference.

With gratitude and appreciation,

The Grace Church Golf Committee

Room Design: A Persuasive Argument A Community Playthings Case Study

The church basement was less-than-ideal. It had, in fact, been previously used as a bowling alley. Could it possibly be transformed into a magical space for play and learning?

Armed with passion and imagination the director and staff at Millbrook Preschool in upstate New York faced this challenge. They envisioned spaces that would “beckon children in,” appealing to their need to climb, build, socialize, and create. “As educators, we always have to be willing to adapt, rethink, and reimagine until we get it right,” states former program director Maureen Sarma. “We have a moral imperative to make this a wonderful first learning experience for children.”

With help from Community Playthings room planners, this vision became a reality. See how it turned out here:

Welcome Grace Year Fellows!

We'll be seeing some fresh faces at Grace Church beginning in mid August. After a long year of planning and organizing, the premier of our Grace Year program is here.

Grace Year is a one-year, experiential learning, residential fellowship for college graduates between the ages of 21 and 28. Fellows will live together in the Vicarage and work with local organizations. Grace Year prepares fellows for careers in community and social change work through professional development, real world experience, and thoughtful reflection and guidance.

Here is a list of our fellows and where they will be working:

Sophia McKean - Cary Institute of Ecosystem

Maihan Wali - Cardinal Hayes

Anastasiia Khlopina- St. Peter's Lithgow

Marcella Gallo - Grace Church / New Generation (youth ministry)

Jorge Gruber - Grace Latino Outreach / EPIC

Each agency is covering the cost of their fellow. Grace Church is fortunate to have funding through grants for our two fellows, supplemented by a contribution from our children and youth program operating budget.

You'll be meeting and learning more about them individually and what they will be working on during services and coffee hours. Please introduce yourselves, welcome them to Grace Church and ask them about the exciting journey they are starting.

If you would like more detailed information about the program, check out the website at gracyear.org

Sunday School News

“Children are not the church’s future, they are its present.” Father Matt

Our end of year Sunday School/Youth Group celebration was held on Sunday, June 3rd at which time our children received their certificates of participation. Madeline and Steven were recognized for their “moving up” to college in the fall! Amari, Belinda, Catherine and Chase will also be “moving up” to John Lacey’s Sunday School class. The pre-school through third grade is looking to see their numbers increase this year as well. Several youth members from our church will be participating in a mission trip to Puerto Rico in the beginning of July. Many thanks to Ben, Diana, Graeme, Max and Samantha as well as our chaperones John Lacey and Janelle Styles!

The highlight of my day, was when Father Matt presented me with a beautiful collage of pictures which the children made thanking me for my work with them all.

After the 10:00 service, a special children’s coffee hour was held at which time, Steven said the strawberry shortcake rated five stars out of five!

We have been making plans for the upcoming Sunday School year. September 9th will be the Parish Kick Off date with the possibility of a welcome back BBQ after the 10:00 service. Preliminary plans are in the works to invite the Grace Year Fellows (one at a time for five weeks) to come to our Sunday School class to talk about their religious customs. Bible awareness and increased understanding of what happens during our church service will be another set of lessons, using the “Alleluia! Amen!” booklet.

All of this takes us into the end of November which can only mean one thing.... the Christmas Pageant! We will be practicing all of December with an anticipated pageant date of December 23rd. Dawn Galente will once again coordinate this event with the help of our Youth Group. More to come on the pageant as we get closer to the date.

Farewell Sweenys!

For over fifteen years, Jim Sweeny has been keeping Grace Church “in the know” by compiling and publishing Grace Notes -- our go-to publication for all things Grace Church. We offer our heartfelt thanks to Jim. This will be the last Grace Notes he is publishing. Jim and his wife Sophia will be embark on new adventures when they retire to Sedona, Arizona. They plan to spend their summers in Millbrook, so they will still be part of our local Grace Church family.

Jim, Sophia and son Michael have been fixtures at Grace Church in since 2001. Jim retired from IBM as a Senior Software Engineer, and Sophia retired from her teaching job at Our Lady of Lourdes High School, where she taught AP Calculus and Pre-Calc Math. Their son Michael recently graduated from Binghamton University with a BA in Actuary Science - and has a job in New York City.

We extend our best wishes to the Sweenys and many, many thanks to Jim, who did an outstanding job with Grace Notes.

Editor’s Note: It has been my pleasure to produce Grace Notes over these past number of years. While Sophia and I are looking forward to our new life in AZ, the feeling is bittersweet. We will miss all the friends we have made as part of the wonderful Grace Church community. Take care and God bless!
